

SO WHAT DO ALL OF THE COLORS MEAN

2/27/2023

Green		The color means that a change has taken place since the web site was last or first published
Yellow		This team is going out of town to a tournament and will not be at that game (also - if the yellow is in the block to the right of the team name, that is to remind us that the coach is coaching more then 1 team. Blue is added to show that the 2 teams are in the same age group and orange is added if there has been a time of play request made)
Light Yellow		The opponent of the team going out of town or forfeiting
Orange		Matches that are for relegation
Light Orange		Either the team has asked for a "BYE" or they have been given a "BYE" (Due to the shortage of referees all teams should have a "BYE" in their schedule
Light Red		Teams playing twice in season / this games does not count towards next seasons ranking
Light Purple		Means that that game is an non-bracket game and will not count toward seeding for the next schedule or Means that you play a team that is playing two games that day. Your game will not count towards the seating for the next schedule
Purple		Shows that the team is traveling in more then an hour
Dark Purple		Forfeit
Blue		Means that that team has to play in two games that day (the second game will only count if it is a scheduled make-up game)
Dark Blue		Completed the 4 games needed to referee
Red		Showing that the team did not complete their required 4 games referee requirement from the last season
Dark Orange		A team has dropped out of the schedule & I am working on it or I have removed them
Team Name in Red		Team is either playing up or a Girls team is playing in the Boys bracket
